Gee salutes Lima campus Presents #1 Campus Campaign Award

May 1994
Vol. 1, Issue 3

Dr. E. Gordon Gee, university president, will be in town Monday, May 2, to participate in Lima Rotary's Career Day Roundtable, kickoff the Lima campus May Week festivities and present the faculty and staff with an award for moving from last to 1st place in the 1993 OSU Campus Campaign. He will also meet with a visiting delegation from Lima, Peru.

The presentation to faculty and staff will be made at a Campus Campaign reception to be held in Reed Hall Dining Room from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. All are invited. The reception will include highlights of the 1993 Campaign, an update by team leaders on the 1994 Campaign, and an overview of OSU-Lima campus scholarships by Gary Weaver. A special appearance will be made by the OSU Lima Campus Basketball Cheerleaders. And the Lima Campus Ha! Ha! Players will present some Philanthropic Funnies in their own inimitable way. Be sure to show up Monday to support your team. We're # 1, remember! GO LIMA BUCKS!!!

OSU President E. Gordon Gee participates in Lima's May Week Festivities. In this tennured event Associate and Full Professors compete by speaking with great academic distinction while standing on one foot within a 48-inch circle. The event is to be dubbed either "Problem-Wrestling" or "Sumo cum laude."

Lima Campus Goes looney for May Week

The theme for May Week 1994 is Looney Tunes; several of your favorite cartoon characters will make guest appearances throughout this fun-filled celebration, May 2-7. Students, faculty and staff from OSU-Lima and Lima Technical College participate in individual and team events. A new event this year is SUMO WRESTLING, involving a 3-minute round in an inflated suit. (Watch for Dr. Gee in the ring on Monday at 1:55 p.m.) Wednesday evening features the annual Student Senate BBQ and the Toledo Silver Streaks, one of the premier teams in wheel-chair basketball. Various fund-raising booths are available which support campus student organizations. Other highlights of the week's activities include:

Monday	pyramid building; sumo wrestling; tug of war;
Tuesday	tricycle race; pie throwing; Baron baseball game
Wednesday	Looney Tune voice contest, bed/cot race; chicken BBQ
Thursday	obstacle course, banana and pizza-eating contests
Friday	Almost Newlywed Game, water balloon and egg tosses
Saturday	Battle of the Bands

Faculty/Staff Awards Banquet, May 20

Faculty and staff of The Ohio State University at Lima will be recognized for their years of service to the university during the annual Recognition/Awards Dinner Theatre to be held Friday, May 20, in the Reed Hall Dining Room. The award for Excellence in Support Services will also be presented. Dinner will begin at 6:00 p.m. followed by the award presentations. All in attendance are then invited to the Lima Campus Theatre presentation, Another Part of The Forest by Lillian Hellman, directed by Martha Farmer.

The menu includes Chicken Cordon Blue and vegetable lasagna. Reservations need to be turned in by May 13. The cost is $20 for dinner and theatre. Half of this cost will be funded by Ohio State Lima. Your cost for the dinner is $10 per person (no cost to recipients).

This is the first year that Ohio State Lima will have its own awards ceremony separate from Lima Tech. Please help us build this event by inviting your spouse and friends to celebrate each other's achievements.

Reservations should be sent to Jan Johnson in the Administration Building, room 208B. For additional information, contact Jan Johnson at ext. 436 or Deirdre O'Driscoll at ext. 284.

Our thanks to Jim Miller and Judy Von Blon for agreeing to serve on the Excellence in Support Services screening committee and to John Hellmann, Deb Howard, and Gary Weaver for serving on the selection committee.

Another Part of The Forest

Dear Theatre Goers:

The OSU-Lima Campus Theatre's spring production is Lillian Hellman's autobiographical ANOTHER PART OF THE FOREST. This ironic play takes place in a small town in Alabama in the post-civil war south of 1880. It concerns the struggle for control in the infamous, dysfunctional, and fascinating Hubbard family twenty years prior to its more familiar but less complex sequel, THE LITTLE FOXES. Here we meet Ben, Oscar, Regina and Birdie in their definitive youth along with their families and significant associates, in a distinctly unromanticized south. We think you'll enjoy the power struggle.

The production dates are Friday and Saturday, May 20 and 21 at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday, May 22 matinee at 2:00 p.m.; the place is Reed Hall Auditorium; the price of the tickets remains at the modest $5 for general admission, $4 for students and $3 for senior citizens. Please call Jenny Burget at ext. 382 for reservations. There are no reserved seats, but we promise good comfortable seats for a powerful play.

An Ironic Drama by
Lillian Hellman

Sincerely,

Martha W. Farmer

P.S. The opportunity to direct this play brought me back to the Lima campus from a nine year retirement.

Welcome Back!

Martha W. Farmer is founder and first director of the Lima campus theatre program. She joined the faculty in 1970 and retired in 1985. Many OSU-Lima students have benefited from her Martha W. Farmer Theatre Scholarship.

Her directing and performance career on the Lima campus encompassed a myriad of styles and genres such as: Euripides, Moliere, Shakespeare, Ibsen, and Kopit. Notable productions have included: Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?, by Edward Albee, The Dining Room by A.R. Gurney, Buried Child, by Sam Shepard, Death of A Salesman, by Arthur Miller and Krappe's Last Tape by Samuel Beckett.

We are happy to welcome Martha back this year for the spring production of Lillian Hellman's Another Part of The Forest.

OSU-Lima Graduation Celebration, June 5

Lima campus faculty and staff will host the first annual OSU-Lima Graduation Celebration for students who have graduated during the 1993 - 1994 academic year. It will be held on Sunday, June 5 from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. (campus location to be determined). Helping to plan this new tradition are: Mary Beth Kaufman, Donna Lamb, Carla Churchill, and Shirley Williams. Several planning sessions involving students have been held. The traditional Honors celebration will be incorporated into this new event. There will be a faculty and staff processional in robes. Students will receive certificates. There will be photo opportunities for students and their families. Further details are in the planning process.

Many graduating OSU-Lima students do not make it to Columbus for Commencement. By hosting this local event, we make it easier for them to celebrate with their families. All other schools in the area have a local celebration. This is our way of building community traditions and publicizing the academic achievements of our student body. Official Graduation Ceremonies for the entire university take place in Columbus on June 10th.

Dressing for the occasion

Faculty and staff will dress in full regalia for the graduation celebration processional on June 5th. Since this event will be held each year, the university is offering to purchase caps and gowns for tenured and full-time faculty/staff. In an effort to share costs, each person will be responsible for supplying or renting his or her hood, according to the discipline and university from which they graduated. If you do not already own your hood, you may rent it through the Bookstore. Last date to order is May 13th, 2:00 p.m. Forms can be picked up from the Bookstore starting May 1st. You pay for the rental or purchase at the time of pick up.

Fees	Rental	Purchase
Bachelor cap-gown & tassel	$15.75	$18.00
Hood	$12.75	n/a
Master cap-gown & tassel	$16.25	$20.00
Hood	$13.25	n/a
Ph.D cap-gown & tassel	$18.25	$26.00
Hood	$15.25	n/a

NOTE: As of this date, hoods are available for rent only. They may not be purchased for this year.

Seminar for working women

The Office of Continuing Education is offering a two-hour seminar for working women on "Juggling Work & Home" Monday, May 16, 6:30-8:30 p.m. It provides participants with options for gaining personal time for oneself. Managing "on-the-job" time is fine, but what happens after you leave work?

This seminar explores ideas and ways for you to find time for yourself in your busy schedule.

It will improve your mental and physical health and make you even more productive at work. The speaker is Sharon Laurent, a registered Activity Consultant and instructor for Ohio State Lima. She is a full-time working mother and wife and knows first hand the stress caused by women's heavy schedules. For information, contact Dr. Carol Fasig at ext. 255. Fee $17.

Columbus Clippers

Ohio State University Night with the Columbus Clippers. Friday May 6, 1994, 7:00 p.m., Cooper Stadium, Columbus.

Free tickets available to OSU faculty, staff and students. For information contact Ned Cullom at 5-2-4747.

TI User-Group Conference

The Lima Campus TI 99/44A Home Computer User Group will hold its annual multi-user group conference Saturday, May 14 from 8-6 p.m. in Reed Hall.

The conference is for users of the Texas Instruments 99/4A computer which was commonly sold for home use in the early 1980's. User groups as well as software and hardware companies from all over the U.S. and Canada will be present. 15 hours of seminars covering all aspects of 99/4A computer use have been scheduled.

The conference is free and open to the public. On-site food service will be available. For further information contact Dr. Charles Good at ext. 205.
